Step-by-step Portraiture Donata Szafian

List of Supplies:

-Recommended graphite pencils: 2H, HB and any pencil you already own between 3B and 9B

-Thin natural willow charcoal sticks (DeSerres sells a 10-pack for $3.99 by Coates)

If you already own charcoal powder, bring it to class but it is optional

-Kneadable eraser

-Any kind of drawing paper will suffice for the first day of class, including drawing pads in any size you already own, or even letter size printing paper. We will discuss paper options for later classes.

-Oils paints for a monochrome study (by student's preference): Titanium White and either Van Dyke Brown or Black

-11"x14" or 12"x16" canvas panel (depending on the student's chosen portrait reference, not required for the first day)

-Gamsol

-Small to medium size filbert and flat brushes and paper towel
